

ALBINO MAN CHARGED WITH HEINOUS DEED

Dear Noble Named in Suit for $100,000 for Crime Against 13-
Year-Old Niece.

(Special Correspondence.)
Moline, Iowa, Nov. 18.—Said for $100,000 was instituted late Thursday by Mrs. Lucinda Riek against Omar Noble, her uncle, on the charge that the latter had damaged her health and reputation through immoral acts which he forced her to commit, on numerous occasions, ever since she was a child 13 years old.

This petition contains some of the most revolting details ever chronicled in local court annals.
The plaintiff also accuses Noble of committing similar acts with two of her sisters as well, one of whom died in St. Joseph, Mo., several years ago.

This civil action against Noble follows closely the indictment of Mrs. Riek, her husband and Edna Hamilton, her nurse, on two charges each, one of conspiracy, the other of malicious threats to extort.

The indictment of the defendant and the other parties was the result of Noble's testimony before the grand jury to the effect that Mrs. Riek had called him to the Riek home, and the trio had then worked the old time "badger game" on him, compelling him to make out a $6,000 check to Mrs. Riek at the point of a gun when he was caught in the latter's bedroom.

"Payment was stopped on the check by Noble."

Dates Back Nine Years.

Her illicit relations with Noble date back to July 4, 1911, Mrs. Riek charges, prior to which time she had been an innocent child. While she was visiting her uncle on that date, he assaulted her when under the influence of liquor, the plaintiff avers. She did not tell on him because he threatened her, she states.

Similar illicit acts were committed against her will repeatedly whenever she was sent to visit Noble's home in Mercer county, Illinois, until May, 1915, when she refused to submit further, and as a result she was sent to the reform school at Noble's instigation, she charges.

Returns to His Home.

In 1918 she secured her release from the industrial school, and an amnesty was granted her. She returned to her home, and she was forced to live with her uncle, who continued to molest her, she charges.

Immediately upon her release, she reluctantly returned to her home, she states.

Her fear that he would send her back to the reform school is given by her as her reason for remaining at his home during the months of April, May and June, 1918.

Finally, in desperation, she refused to submit longer, she states, and told Noble that he could send her back to the reform school, whereupon Noble became conciliatory and offered the sum of $5,000 to "keep her mouth shut," she avers.

Premised Her Money.

It was at Defendant Noble's request that she married William Riek, he having told her that it was the only way out of their difficulties, reaffirming his statement that he would give her $5,000, she alleges.
The $5,000 has never been paid her, she states.

It was for the purpose of settling the $5,000 debt that Noble called on her Nov. 5, the date the "badger game" was alleged to have been pulled, the plaintiff maintains.
The $5,000 which he issued was given as partial payment of her claims against him, but he stopped payment, and she has received no money for the damages suffered by her up to this date, she claims.

Hanley & Hanley and H. M. Bartlett are attorneys for the plaintiff in this action, which will not be heard until the January term of court.
